SAFEGUARDING REPRESENTATIVES

Would you be willing to be considered for a Safeguarding Role in our Parish? For a copy of the Job Description or further information please speak to Fr Petroc.

SAFEGUARDING

EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS

Many people are away in October so the renewal of Eucharistic Ministers and commissioning of new ministers will take place at the start of November. We could still do with more people to volunteer for this role. Please talk to the priest or an existing Eucharistic Minister if you want to find out what it involves.

CARITAS

Season of Creation 2022 The burning bush is the symbol for this year's Season of Creation which runs from 1 September until the Feast of St Francis of Assisi on 4 October. In this Season of Creation, this symbol of God's Spirit calls us to listen to the voice of creation and consider how we can be good stewards of the earth's valuable resources. You can find materials for prayer and reflection on the Diocesan website. There is also an opportunity for everyone to share ideas about what more we can do care for our common home through an online survey. <https://www.plymouth-diocese.org.uk/the-diocese/how-we-work/environment/season-of-creation/>
The September 2022 Caritas Newsletter is now available on line: <https://tinyurl.com/5n97ck47>

CAFOD

Family Fast Day is on Friday 7 October. Join together with your parish, friends and family so that families around the world survive today and have food for all their tomorrows. By sharing a simple meal and giving what you save, you'll be standing in solidarity with vulnerable people who are threatened by the global food crisis. No-one deserves to go hungry. Gift Aid envelopes will be available at the back of the Church next weekend.

PRISONERS WEEK

Prisoner's Week this year begins on 9 October 2022. At present there are nearly 80,000 in the prison population in this country, and over 90,000 children with a parent in prison. Prisoners' Week provides an opportunity for us all to pray for those in prison, their families, those who work in the prison system and all those who are victims of crime.

TREASURE HUNT THIS COMING SATURDAY 9.30AM

Volunteers are invited to come and hunt through the contents of the large garage behind St Paul's church to find who knows what! There is stuff in there that hasn't been seen for decades.

We are going to clear the garage so that we can look at what potential it has, but before we do so we need to make sure we are not sending anything important to the tip. We will move stuff we want to keep to the smaller garage next door.

There may be things being cleared out that others may find useful. Come and help sort through, you might find something you need.

SAVE THE DATE: 29TH OCTOBER 2022

VOCATIONS TO PRIESTHOOD - DAY OF REFLECTION.

Have you ever asked the question 'Is God calling me to Priesthood or to the Religious life?'. This 'Day of Reflection' for men will be held on Saturday 29th October 2022 from 10:00 to 16:00 at University of Exeter, Catholic Chaplaincy - within easy walking distance from Exeter St Davids Railway Station. Under 18s are welcome to attend with parents' permission. For further information and to register for the event, please contact Fr Jacek Kostuch on Jacek.Kostuch@prcdtr.org.uk or speak to your Parish Priest by 16th October at the latest. Arrangements can be made to collect you from Exeter St David's Railway Station and returned after, if required.

MESSAGE FROM CARDINAL VINCENT NICHOLS (16 SEPTEMBER 2022) AFTER MEETING WITH KING CHARLES

"Earlier this evening I was privileged to be part of an Audience with King Charles. He invited senior faith leaders to Buckingham Palace in order to address us.

In my personal conversation with the King, I assured him that the Catholic community had continued, during these days of mourning, in heartfelt prayer for his mother.

He expressed his gratitude for this. And then, turning back to me, he asked me to ensure that the Catholics of England and Wales knew of his thanks and gratitude for these prayers.

With every good wish,

+Vincent"

This Weekends Mass

Psalm response : “My soul, give praise to the Lord.”

Gospel acclamation “Alleluia, alleluia! The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice, says the Lord, I know them and they follow me. Alleluia!”

Hymns

1. Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise,
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.

2. O generous love! That he who smote
in man for man the foe,
the double agony in man
for man should undergo;

3. And in the garden secretly
and on the Cross on high,
should teach his brethren, and inspire
to suffer and to die.

4. Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise,
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.

John Henry Newman (1801-90)

1. Lead, kindly light amid th’ encircling gloom,
lead thou me on;
the night is dark, and I am far from home,
lead thou me on.

Keep thou my feet; I do not ask to see
the distant scene; one step enough for me.

2. I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou shouldst lead me on:

I loved to choose and see my path; but now
lead thou me on.

I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
pride ruled my will; remember not past years.

3. So long thy power hath blest me, sure it still will lead me on o’er moor and fen, o’er crag and torrent, till
the night is gone,
and with the morn those angel faces smile
which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

J. H. Newman (1801-90)

1. For Mary, mother of the Lord
God’s holy name be praised,
who first the Son of God adored
as on her child she gazed.

2. She gave her body for God’s shrine,
her heart to piercing pain,
and knew the cost of love divine
when Jesus Christ was slain.

3. Dear Mary, from your lowliness
and home in Galilee,
there comes a joy and holiness
to every family.

4. Hail, Mary, you are full of grace,
above all women blest;
blest in your Son, whom your embrace
in birth and death confessed.

J.R. Peacey (1896-1971)
